PREFACE

While attending Hale County High School near Tuscaloosa, Alabama, my lifetime interest in history was inspired by Mrs. Zara Jones Powers, a teacher who made historical people and events exciting and real for her students. During my subsequent thirty-one years in military service, my interest in people and their history continued as I traveled about the world.

In September 1959, I became seriously interested in my own family history when I saw the Bible of my great-grandfather, Wiley Skelton. It noted that Wiley was a son of John and Rebecca Skelton and was born on March 2nd day 1797. Wiley's children were listed with their dates of birth, but no details were given about his parents, John and Rebecca Skelton.

After reading several library books on genealogical research, I remembered and located a letter I had received in January 1953 from Mrs. Eda Skelton Bonney in Washington, D. C. At that time, she had written to me asking about my possible relationship to her line of Skeltons who had moved from Virginia to Kentucky. She had also asked if I were related to the Alexander Stephens Skelton family in Georgia.

Despite the passing of six years, I hopefully wrote a letter to Mrs. Bonney. She promptly replied, was glad to help me, and began her search in the Tuscaloosa County, Alabama, records in the National Archives. While checking the Confederate Army record of my great-uncle, Dillard Perry Skelton, she found an entry that he was born in Elbert County, Georgia. This fact was the key that established my relationship to the Skeltons in Hartwell, Georgia.

In May 1960, I wrote to Mrs. Alexander Stephens Skelton in Hartwell, Georgia, and learned that she had begun her research on the John Skelton family back in the 1920's. She was happy to share her findings and thus began our years of close collaboration on the genealogy of the John Skelton family.

After I retired from the United States Air Force in 1960, my wife, Dorothy G. Simmons Skelton, became my chief collaborator on Skelton research and correspondence. Being a research analyst, educator, and artist, she shared my interest in historical details. In addition to our multitude of queries by mail, we traveled extensively throughout the United States, searching local records in counties and States as well as personally interviewing many John Skelton descendants.

As my Skelton material accumulated, I realized that genealogy is a continuous process and that my findings, though incomplete, should be published so that a permanent record would be available to both present and future Skelton family researchers. Thus began the huge task of assembling this volume about the descendants of John Skelton of Georgia.

Every effort was made to check the accuracy of dates and facts because family records and memories can occasionally be in error. The facts sent by contemporary Skeltons were accepted as received. Whenever professional, occupational, or military information was given voluntarily, I included it in footnotes on the pertinent family's page. It is hoped that any descendants who discover errors or omissions will transmit these promptly to the author so that a supplement may be later prepared and distributed.

Certainly, there is a serious need for further research to establish the exact relationship between the John Skelton family of Georgia and the many other Skelton families that were established early in the United States. There is an even greater need to trace more of the early American Skelton families back to England where for centuries the Skelton name has been a familiar one, particularly in Cumberland and York.

In my final chapter, I have included some descendants from several early American Skelton lines other than my own. We shall continue to exchange our genealogical findings and shall welcome assistance from any Skelton descendant.

For their most generous and able assistance on this book, John Skelton of Georgia, I would like to give special credit to: Mrs. Alexander Stephens Skelton of Hartwell, Georgia; Mrs. Eda Skelton Bonney of Washington, D. C.; my brother, Perry D. Skelton of Tuscaloosa, Alabama; and my wife, Dorothy G. Simmons Skelton of Brightwood, Virginia. I would also like to thank every Skelton descendant who kindly cooperated and helped make this book a reality.

Original Stub Book I, Indent #18. He was granted 200 acres of land on the Toogalow River by the State of South Carolina on 21 Jan. 1785 and "in the ninth year of the Independence of the United States of America," Bounty Grant, Vol. 4, page 99. In 1793, John Skelton purchased 400 acres of land presently in Hart Co., Georgia, from his father-in-law, Esaias Harbour. On this Harbour-Skelton land, a Revolutionary Marker was placed on John Skelton's grave, 9 July 1961. Participating in the ceremony were members of the John Benson Chapter DAR of Hartwell, Georgia, many Skelton descendants, and friends. The commemorative speech given by the author follows these John Skelton footnotes. A copy of his speech has been filed in the Georgia Department of Archives and History, Atlanta, Georgia.

John and Polly Highsmith were listed in the Hart Co., Georgia, 1860 Census and his Will was probated there on 28 Jan. 1863. Nancy's grandfather, James Highsmith, was born in New Hanover Co., North Carolina, and his Will was probated 10 March 1824, Elbert Co., Georgia. He served in the Militia of South Carolina during the Revolution. Account No. 1032, January 31, 1786. Nancy's great-grandfather, Daniel Highsmith II, signed his Will on 19 Feb. 1807 and it was probated in 1813, New Hanover Co., North Carolina. Her great-great-grandfather, Daniel Highsmith who married Ann Beck, signed his Will on 8 March 1771 and it was probated Feb. 1772, Halifax Co., North Carolina. Information on the Highsmiths was given by Mrs. Alexander Stephens Skelton.

The commemorative speech given by Colonel John W. Skelton, USAF, (Ret.), for the Dedication of John Skelton's Revolutionary Marker on 9 July 1961 at Hartwell, Georgia:

Madam Regent and members of the John Benson Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, and other interested ladies and gentlemen:

We have gathered here today to honor and to pay our respect to an early American Patriot, John Skelton. I feel it is a privilege for us all to be here at his graveside. I also feel that it is appropriate for a descendant of my background, a professional soldier for 31 years, to take an active part in paying tribute to John Skelton, a citizen-soldier. The interdependence of this nation's Regular Armed Forces and citizen-soldiers during times of stress and war is as true today as it was during John's time.

As many of you know, it took a great deal of research to make this dedication to John Skelton possible. At this time, I would like to express our gratitude and appreciation to Mrs. Alexander Stephens Skelton for her many years of dedicated perseverance in searching for information about John. Her research began in the early 1920's and is continuing. From the 1920's until 1959, she had not been able to establish John as a Revolutionary soldier from checking the Georgia, Virginia, New Jersey, and Pennsylvania records. It was not until early 1960 that she learned from Miss Janie Revill's Index of Revolutionary Claims in South Carolina that John Skelton was a Revolutionary soldier. This information and other information from the South Carolina Archives plus Census records enabled her to definitely identify this John as our John Skelton. In fact, it is due primarily to her efforts that we are gathered here today.

In September 1959, I became seriously interested in the genealogy of our Skelton family when I saw my great-grandfather's bible which indicated that he was a son of John and Rebecca Skelton. After reading several books on genealogy research, I remembered and located a letter I had received in January 1953 from a Mrs. Eda Skelton Bonney in Washington, D. C. At that time, she had written to me asking about my possible relationship to her line of Skeltons who moved from Virginia to Kentucky. By telephone she also told me about the Alexander Stephens Skelton family in Georgia. Even though I recalled that my family had migrated to Alabama from Georgia in the early 1800's, I gave her information no further thought. But by January 1960, seven years later, I had become very interested in the Skelton family history.

After all these years, I hopefully wrote Mrs. Bonney a note and was most delighted to hear from her again. She was eager to help me and began her search in the Tuscaloosa County, Alabama, records. In checking the Tuscaloosa Confederate Army record of my great-uncle Dillard Perry Skelton, she found an entry that he was born in Elbert County, Georgia. Now we knew where to look in Georgia.

From two books: The History of Hart County, Georgia, by Baker and The History of Elbert County, Georgia, by McIntosh, we had an excellent picture of John Skelton and his family. After learning that I was a descendant of this John Skelton, I wrote to Mrs. Skelton in May 1960. We very quickly established a friendly, stimulating, and fruitful correspondence on the Skeltons. From Mr. Bakers History I knew what information was missing and was able to furnish some pertinent facts about John's wife and sons Elijah, Swan Hardin, and Wiley who lived for several years in Tuscaloosa County, Alabama. All except Swan Hardin died there. Swan Hardin had moved to Texas about 1853.

Our research continues and in January 1961, a "Skelton Team" of researchers on John and William Skelton's forebears and their contemporary relatives was formed. In addition to Mrs. Steve Skelton here in Hartwell, Mrs. Eda Skelton Bonney in Washington, D.C., and myself in Brightwood, Virginia, our team includes four descendants of William Skelton. They are: Colonel George Byers, U.S. Army Retired, South Bend, Indiana, who is here with us today; the Reverend Dr. Eugene Lamar Skelton, Phoenix, Arizona; the Reverend William Alva Skelton, Retired, Evansville, Indiana; and Mr. William Argyle Skelton, Jr., Dallas, Texas. Needless to say, our Captain is none other than Mrs. Steve Skelton and we all admire her greatly.

At present, we have indications that John Skelton was a son of Robert and Elizabeth Skelton of South Carolina, (1). Robert Skelton, Jr., and William Skelton may be John's brothers. The "Skelton Team" hopes to find conclusive legal proof of these relationships. In addition, the Team hopes to learn something about John's grandparents and to go on back as far as we can go in his ancestry. Ultimately, we expect to publish our findings for posterity.

From the research done thus far, what are some of the facts that we know about John Skelton? We know that he was born in South Carolina (2) about 1762. During the Revolutionary War, he served in an Independent South Carolina Company from 21 April 1779 to 2 July 1780. For this service he was granted 200 acres of land on the Toogalow River by the State of South Carolina in 1784. In 1793, he purchased 400 acres of land presently in Hart County, Georgia, from his father-in-law, Esaias Harbour. In fact, we are standing on a portion of this Harbour-Skelton land. John married Rebecca Harbour about 1793 and they lived here until John died. They reared the following eight boys and three girls: Elijah, Wiley, Jabez, Richmond, Dicey, John Jr., Elizabeth, Swan Hardin, William, Dianah, and Littleton.

During the early 1800's, John was also a very active and respected member of the Sardis Church which was formerly Cedar Creek Baptist Church. The Church Minutes indicate that he was often called upon to investigate and to arbitrate in personal and community matters.

In 1806, John had two draws on Land Lotteries in Elbert County, Georgia. We estimate that his total land holdings exceeded 2,000 acres.

In 1820, he sold two parcels amounting to 300 acres on Coldwater Creek to his third son, Jabez Skelton, for the token payment of $100.00. Jabez was the father of Major John Hamilton and the grandfather of Alexander Stephens Skelton. In this same year, John deeded 468 acres on the Big Coldwater Creek to his second son, Wiley Skelton, for the modest sum of $225.00. It was Wiley who was my great-grandfather. In 1839, he deeded a plat of land in Tuscaloosa County, Alabama, to his sixth son, Swan Hardin Skelton, who was the great-grandfather of Miss Develand Flowers in Midland, Texas, with whom I correspond.

John Skelton wrote his own Will in July 1842. To his wife, Rebecca, he gave the house in which they lived, their furniture, the 6 or 7 acres of land about the house, and a strip of land south of Cedar Creek. From his livestock, he willed her his gray Stud horse, his sorrel mare, and several choice cows, hogs, and sheep. The home plantation of 750 acres on which we are now standing, he gave to his youngest son, Littleton. Along with other items, Littleton was also willed John's saddle. The balance of John's land, livestock, and personal property was to be sold and the proceeds divided equally among his lawful heirs except his daughter Dicey Brown and his son-in-law, Thomas McGuire. I understand that he had already taken care of them. In late 1842, John died.

Between the years of 1843 and 1846, John's wife, Rebecca, went to Alabama with her son Wiley to join two other sons, Elijah and Swan Hardin who had been settled in Alabama for several years. Elijah Skelton was the great-grandfather of Mrs. Evelyn Lewis Robinson in Houston, Texas, with whom I am presently corresponding.

In Tuscaloosa County, Alabama, on 30 August 1854, John's wife, Rebecca, died. Twenty-four days later, the eldest son, Elijah, died.

From wide sources and a great variety of records, we can draw certain conclusions about John Skelton. He was a loyal patriot possessed with a strong, aggressive pioneer spirit. He was a Southern gentleman with a generous, warm heart. He married a lady born and reared in Virginia, a member of a well-known Colonial family. He was a devoted family man, a builder of his community, and a pillar of his church. In keeping with the economy of the times he owned slaves and operated an extensive plantation. He was both a successful planter and a businessman. He had a sharp and logical mind with legal capabilities that he utilized in his business and church affairs.

These commendable characteristics are legacies he left to us. Down through the years, John's descendants have been true to these legacies and have contributed notably to the defense and the growth of our great country.

I think that John would be proud of his many descendants who have distinguished themselves as judges, lawyers, legislators, military officers, soldiers, planters, farmers, lumbermen, contractors, businessmen, engineers, and churchmen. As in the past, we shall continue our endeavor to emulate our outstanding ancestor, John Skelton. Our program today is one more way to honor and to show our respect and admiration for him as well as the principles by which he lived.

In conclusion, may I suggest that we further dedicate ourselves to lives that will continue to bring honor to us and to the memory of John Skelton.

(1) Subsequent research since 1961 indicates that John Skelton was not the son of this Robert and Elizabeth (Bobo) Skelton in South Carolina. As of March 1969, we think he may have been a descendant of the John Skelton whose Will was filed on 18 Nov. 1777 and probated on 13 July 1778 in Mecklenburg Co., Virginia.

(2) In the Franklin Co., Georgia, 1880 Census, Dicey Skelton Brown was listed with the Richard (Richmond) H. Brown family; Dicey indicated that her father, John Skelton, was born in Virginia. In the White Co., Georgia, 1880 Census, Littleton Skelton indicated that his father, John Skelton, was born in South Carolina.

(13) In Strawn Tribune, Strawn, Texas, March 1914:

"CELEBRATES 50TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

"On last Monday night, March 23, at the home of their youngest son, Jno. A. Watson, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Watson celebrated their golden wedding anniversary.

"Surrounded by their children, grandchildren and a few immediate friends and the employees of Watson Bros. Store, they had a festive occasion. Music was furnished by a full brass band and as the old familiar strains of 'Dixie' broke forth, 'Uncle Bill' remembered how familiar the time was when that same old tune called him to battle back in the 60's, before he claimed his bride and afterwards also, for he married while on leave of absence from his Company. Then 'Silver Threads Among The Gold' made all present realize the change that had come over the old couple during the past few years.

"Refreshments were served, provided by the children of the couple, then the 'Bride's Cake' was cut, first by the venerable couple, followed by each of the children, then the grandchildren and the friends present. During the eating of the 'Bride's Cake', presents were presented.

"Music on the piano was furnished by Misses Mae Sheperd and Edna Rogers and a pleasant evening was spent in dancing and other amusements...."

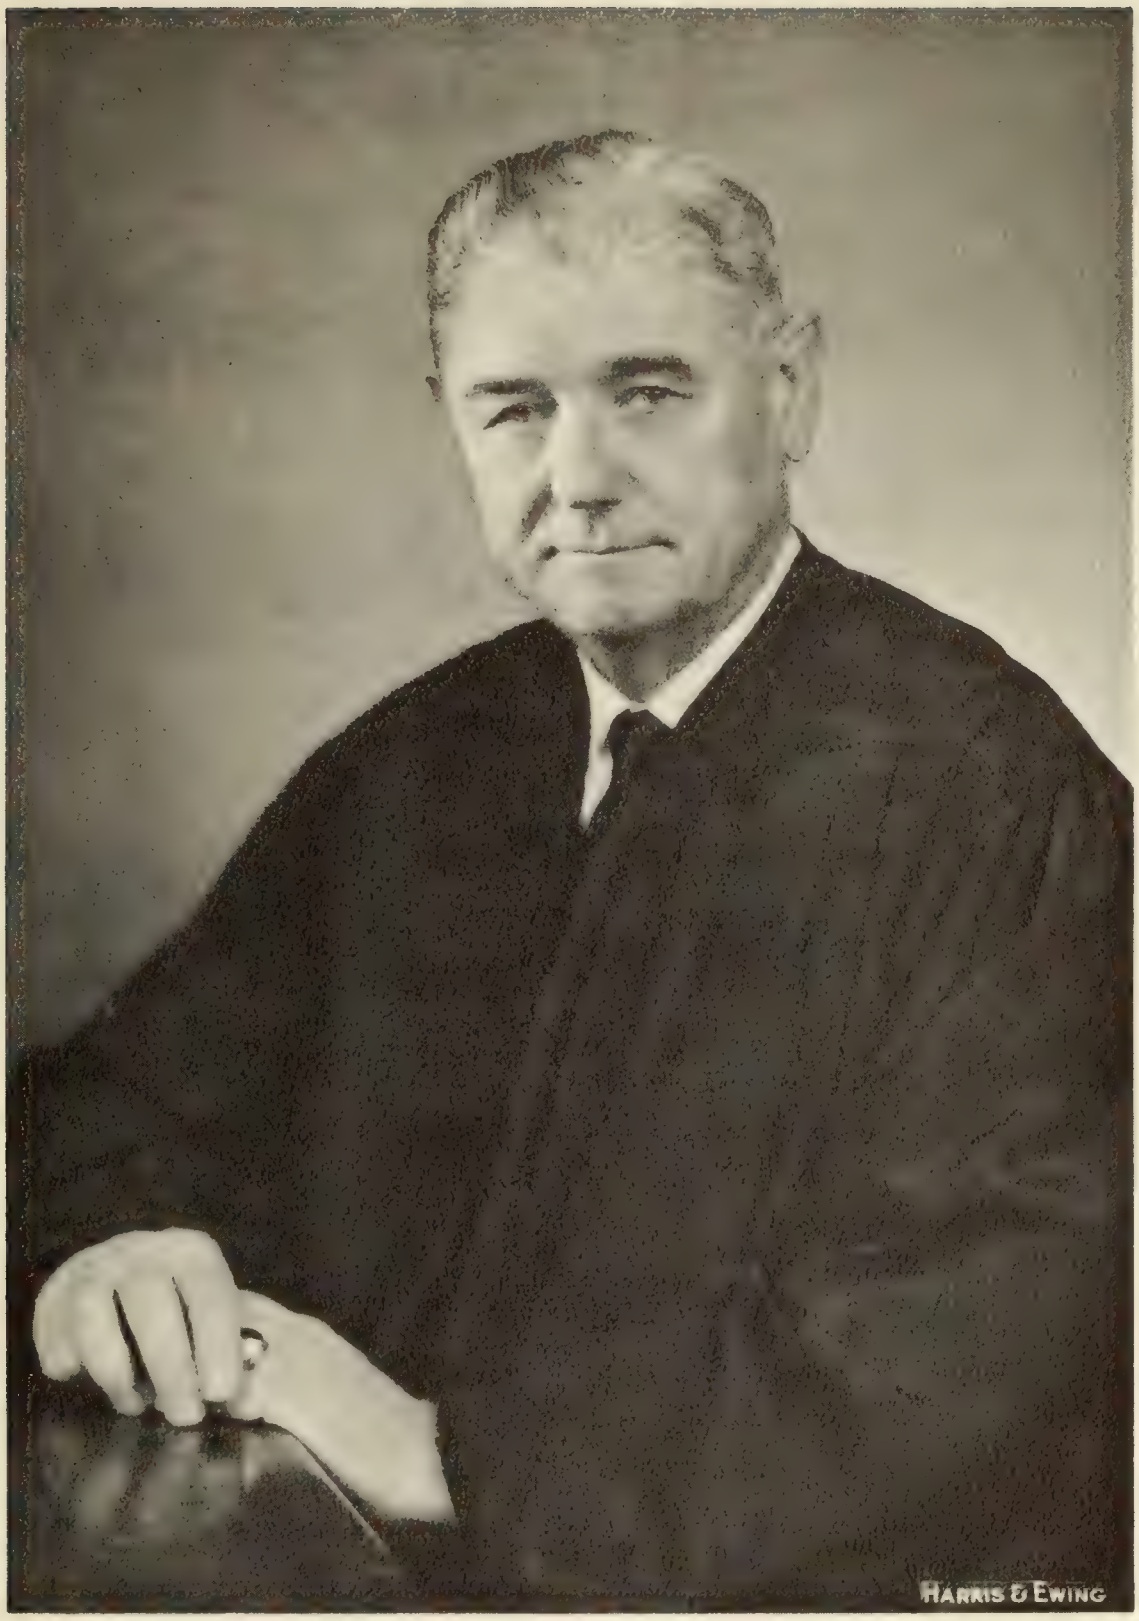
CHAPTER VIII.

OTHER SKELTONS



Judge Byron George Skelton
Associate Judge, U. S. Court of Claims
Who's Who In America, 1958 - 1969

OTHER SKELTONS

In England, the Skelton name has been a familiar one for many centuries, particularly in Cumberland and York After William the Conqueror began his English military campaigns in 1066, he rewarded his important followers with grants of land. When Robert de Brus had successfully subdued the English rebellions in the north, he was awarded 51 Manors in the North Riding of York and 43 in the East and West Ridings. In the North Riding of York, he built the Skelton castle near the Cleveland hills and the Skelton Beck which flows to the sea at Saltburn. Apparently, the Skeltons originated in North England. They are, however, documented in early records throughout England.

Beginning in 1629, some of the Skeltons emigrated from England and settled in North America. Among them were Reverend Samuel Skelton in Salem, Massachusetts; Dr. Henry Skelton in Roxbury, Massachusetts; James Skelton in Goochland County, Virginia; Robert Skelton in Monmouth, New Jersey; Judge Joseph Skelton in Middlesex County, New Jersey; John Skelton in Pennsylvania; and Thomas Skelton living in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, in 1735. (1) (2)

In the 1790 Census of South Carolina, six Skelton families were residing in three counties of that State. The families of William, Robert (3), and Jacob Skelton were in Pendleton County. There was a Thomas Skelton family living in Union County. In Greenville County lived another Robert Skelton as well as the John Skelton whose descendants were presented in the preceding pages of this book.

In this final chapter of my book, I have briefly presented other early American Skeltons because I have been corresponding with some of their descendants.

The William Skelton who resided in Pendleton County, South Carolina, in 1790, was the great-great-great grandfather of Colonel George Byers of South Bend, Indiana. Colonel Byers has intensively researched genealogical information on the descendants of this William Skelton and has written the following biography:

BIOGRAPHY OF WILLIAM SKELTON

William Skelton (Scelton, Schelton, Seelton) was born about 1745, probably in Virginia. He took land on Johns Creek, a north tributary of Enoree River, Union District of the province of South Carolina in 1770. (1) He and his Sarah did not divest themselves of title to that land until 10 October 1788. (2) William and his family appear in Pendleton (now Anderson) County, South Carolina, in the 1790 First United States Census. (3) William took land there on 13 July 1789, (4) and deeded it away in 1791. (5) He therefore appears to have lived in Union District (County) of South Carolina through the Revolution. He had there two younger brothers, Thomas and Robert. Thomas Skelton was still there in the 1790 Census, (6) but Robert had moved to Pendleton County. (7) There may have been another brother, Mark, who died near Spartanburg in 1784. (8)

Miss Janie Revill, on page 75 of her "Original Index Book, Showing the Revolutionary Claims Filed in South Carolina 1783 - 1786, Kept by James McCall, Auditor General," 1941, indexes both William and Robert Skelton as Seelton (the first "e" being mistakenly copied from "c", in the spelling Scelton. (9) She also indexes both Robert and Thomas Seelton (same misspelling as above) on page 112. We thus find the three members of the family jointly named on the two pages, 75 and 112.

When we trace the services of these three persons to the Indents (10) and references in the South Carolina Archives Building, Columbia, we find them clearly to be Skeltons, in some of the usually accepted spellings.

It is found that Thomas and Robert made claim on the same day, namely, 22 June 1786; that both served in Col. Thomas Brandon's Regiment; and that William Skelton and Pendleton County are mentioned in the records clearly pertaining to this Robert.

Another Robert Skelton and a John are of record in South Carolina for Revolutionary service, but they applied at a different time; had a different colonel, by name Roebuck; and are identifiable as residents of Greenville County in the 1790 Census of South Carolina. Research indicates they are of a generation younger than William and his undoubted younger brothers, Thomas and Robert of Union and Pendleton Counties.

To fix the place in Revolutionary activity of these three Union County Skeltons, it is needful to pursue a few more details. Examination of the records of Robert Skelton of Union County discloses that he lost his mount, his horse, in action in the Cherokee Nation, in the Province's service. The event is attested by Lt. William Addington on March 10th 1782. In 1783 Robert made claim for a horse lost in Public Service in 1782, valued at Pounds 9.5.8 1/2. The record in this claim reads in part as follows: "the signing of the Certificate of this or Wm. Skelton's must be Counterfeit. Entd. WG. Pmc aly." Critical reading of this entry shows that William Skelton, also, had filed claim for the horse. Since there is no indication in history that this William Skelton was ever in military service, his only claim for reimbursement for the value of the lost horse would be ownership. Robert the soldier had lost the horse owned by William and lent for service.

Payment of the claim seems not of record, but that is in no way essential to establish the chain of events showing the loyal contributions to the Cause of Independence and demonstrated support thereof of the several Skeltons of South Carolina, including William Skelton's loan and loss of his horse.

The steady southern and western migrations of William and Robert, after the Revolution, indicate they never wavered in their loyalty. William Skelton and his family, with the probable exception of the eldest son Jacob, who followed later, moved from Pendleton (now Anderson) County, South Carolina, across the Savannah River, to Elbert County, Georgia, and took land there on Cedar Creek in 1792, from John Scales. The Grantee was styled (John) William Skelton. William Skelton in 1794 in Elbert County, Georgia, named his youngest-born son Robert. That Robert and his eldest brother Jacob were both buried at Providence Churchyard, Gibson County, Indiana, in 1853, and have identifying markers. From Pendleton (now Anderson) County, South Carolina, there followed to Elbert County, Georgia, the elder Robert Skelton, Senr., with his wife Elizabeth Bobo, there to raise a family and later to migrate to Madison County, Alabama.

By the 1800 Census William's eldest son Jacob and second son John were back in Pendleton County, South Carolina.

In about 1803 the Skelton/Scales families, much intermarried, began migration from Elbert County, Georgia, and Pendleton County, South Carolina to Warren County, Kentucky. (11) It seems probable that John Skelton, son of William, led the way, as he was the first to pay taxes in Warren County, Kentucky.

On 10th March 1803, William Skelton's third son, Zachariah, married in Georgia to Nancy Jane Scales, (12) whom subsequent events show to be daughter of Thomas Scales and sister to William L. Scales, Senr., a proven son of Thomas and his Ann. It is believed that at about the same time William L. Scales married Mary Skelton, daughter of William Skelton and his Sarah and elder sister of Zachariah. The two couples became thereafter inseparable. It is probable they did not join the Kentucky migration until about 1806, as shown by land-draws, tax records, and birth place records in family bibles of Zachariah Skelton and William Scales.

In late 1807 the Skelton/Scales group moved from Warren County, Kentucky, across the Ohio River into then Knox (now Gibson) County, Indiana Territory. There William's sons Jacob, James, and Robert, after participation in the battle of Tippecanoe, remained until death. Son Ralph migrated to Washington County, Arkansas. Zachariah, with William Scales and Mary, moved on in 1815 into what is now Warrick County, Zachariah near Polk Patch (southeast of present Selvin) and William Scales at Scalesville, between present Lynnville and Selvin.

In the 1820 Census, first to be taken in Indiana, Zachariah had in his household a male a generation older than he. Since his Nancy Jane's father Thomas Scales had died in Elbert County, Georgia, in 1799, and since William Skelton is known to have paid taxes in Warren County, Kentucky, as Senior, in 1806, it is believed that this male member of Zachariah's household was his father William Skelton. No such person appeared in Zachariah's household in the 1830 Census, although Zachariah still lived at the same location until 1837. In this year of 1964, there is no known information as to the place of William Skelton's burial.

Zachariah Skelton's Bible, as extracted by his grandson, James Robert Skelton 1863 - 1952, shows that Zachariah is son of William Skelton and his Sarah. It also shows that Zachariah was born 24 September 1784. It does not show Nancy Jane Scales' birth date. It does show both death dates. Their grave markers at Garrison Cemetery, north of Tennyson, Warrick County, Indiana, erected by their son Elijah Scales Skelton, show both birth and death dates, completing identification.

William Levi and Mary Skelton Scales' Bible shows that William L. Scales, Senr., was born 4 February 1785 and Mary Skelton was born 17 April 1782. A subsequent entry in different hand shows that he died 18 June 1848 at Boonville, and she on 10 February 1850. It is accepted that both are buried at Log Creek Cemetery (South Fork) in Pike County, on the Warrick County Line after it was moved northward in 1826, the graves being without markers. Six of their children are buried there with markers, and one without.

(12) Great-great-grandparents of Colonel George Byers.

Colonel Byers' great-grandparents were Judge Zachariah Skelton, Jr., and Sarah Sherry; his grandparents were Uriah Byers and Elizabeth Jane Skelton; and his parents were George Wesley Byers and "Lillie" Elizabeth Ann De Weese.

Other William Skelton of Pendleton County, South Carolina, descendants who have worked closely with Colonel George Byers on Skelton genealogy included Reverend Dr. Eugene Lamar Skelton, Phoenix, Arizona; Reverend William Alva Skelton, Retired, Evansville, Indiana; and William Argyle Skelton, Jr., Dallas, Texas. Another well-known descendant of this William Skelton of Pendleton County is the screen, radio, and television comedian, Richard Bernard Skelton, widely known as "Red" Skelton.

A descendant of the Robert Skelton listed in the Pendleton County, South Carolina, 1790 Census is Miss Zenobia Bell Callahan, Anniston, Alabama. She has listed many of his descendants in her book, Nine Generations Of The Skelton Family, published in 1961.

Judge Byron G. Skelton, U. S. Court of Claims, Washington, D.C., may also be a direct descendant of the Robert Skelton listed in the Pendleton County, South Carolina, 1790 Census. Robert Skelton's wife, Elizabeth Bobo, was the daughter of Lewis Bobo and Sarah Solomon. The combined genealogical research of Colonel George Byers and the author strongly indicates Judge Byron Skelton's descent was through Robert's son, Solomon Skelton, and Robert's grandson, William Hiram Skelton. The genealogical findings of Judge Byron G. Skelton follow:

The Mark Skelton mentioned in the first paragraph of Colonel Byers' "Biography of William Skelton" was originally from Mecklenburg County, Virginia. Mark was named in his brother William's Will dated 25 July 1768. Mark Skelton was also named in the Will of his father, John Skelton of Mecklenburg County, Virginia. Several other legal actions of this line of Skeltons are recorded in Mecklenburg County, Virginia, Deed Books. A contemporary descendant of this Mark Skelton is Jack A. Skelton, Cos Cob, Connecticut.

Other Skeltons recorded in early Virginia included William Skelton of Caroline County, Jeremiah Skelton of Shenandoah County, and John Skelton of Shenandoah County.

The William Skelton in Caroline County, Virginia, was the ancestor of Alan G. Skelton, Vicksburg, Mississippi; Dr. Robert H. Logan, Fayetteville, Arkansas; and Thomas H. Bailey, Church Hill, Tennessee. They have devoted many years to genealogical research. In 1964, Thomas H. Bailey published his book, Christian-Skelton History and Genealogy.

The Jeremiah Skelton of Shenandoah County, Virginia, was the ancestor of Mrs. Eda Skelton Bonney (Mrs. Victor B. Bonney) of Silver Springs, Maryland. For years, she has done intensive genealogical research on various Skelton lines in America and has written the following brief account of her descent from Jeremiah:

JEREMIAH SKELTON

Jeremiah Skelton was born in Virginia ca. 1778 (1850 Census, Livingston County, Kentucky). His parentage has never been established, but it is possible that he was the son of John and Catherine (Hepler) Skelton of Shenandoah County, Virginia. John Skelton left a will, dated 13 November 1816, in which he names children William, John, Jeremiah, Samuel, Isaac, and heirs of a deceased son, Joseph. Jeremiah Skelton appears in the Shenandoah County tax list for 1801-2 only, and Jeremiah Skelton appears for the first time on the Lee County, Virginia, tax list for 1805-1813, and records in the county show he was there later. He was a Captain in the 94th Regiment, Virginia Militia, under Col. Preston, in the War of 1812. (See Bounty Land File 105905, Archives, Washington, D. C.)

Jeremiah Skelton left Lee County, Virginia, for Kentucky and appears in the 1817 and 1819 tax list of Boone County, Kentucky. Shortly after that he left Boone County and went to Livingston County, Kentucky, appearing there in the 1820 Census, and died there around 1853.

Sometime before 1805, he married (presumably in Lee County, Virginia) Barthenia (Chadwell) Cotterell, widow of Moses Cotterell. Barthenia was born in Henry County, Virginia, ca. 1775, and died in Livingston County, Kentucky, June 29, 1848 (tombstone inscription). She was the daughter of David and Elizabeth (Turner) Chadwell. David Chadwell was a Captain in the Revolution from Henry County, Virginia. (Gwathmy's " Virginia in the Revolution" p. 141, Eckenrode's "Index to Revolutionary Soldiers" p. 90, "Auditor's Account Book 1779" p. 101, State Library, Richmond, Virginia.) He was a large land owner in Lee County, Virginia, and a member of the House of Delegates 1794 - 5 and 1798 - 9. He died in Claiborne County, Tennessee, ca. 1832 or 1833. His wife, Elizabeth Turner, was a daughter of John Turner of Halifax County, Virginia, (his Will dated 1762), and is said to have been a relative of Sir John Moore who was killed in a battle which involved Napoleon at Corunna, Spain.

The children of Jeremiah Skelton and wife, Barthenia, were the following, all except one, born in Virginia, presumably in Lee County, Virginia: (3)

Alexander, b. May 16, 1805; d. Livingston County, Kentucky, August 27, 1830, unmarried.

Malinda, b. ca. 1806; m. Livingston County, Kentucky, April 29, 1824, John Jamerson.

Susan, b. ca. 1809; m. John S. Willis and lived in Lee County, Virginia.

John, b. ca. 1811; m. Livingston County, Kentucky, September 17, 1850, Easter E. Bryan.

Mary D. (Polly), b. ca. 1813; m. Livingston County, Kentucky, November 1, 1831, Spear Coffield.

Sebree, b. Kentucky, December 26, 1816 (presumably in Boone County, Kentucky); a physician of Livingston County, Kentucky, m. ca. 1850, Almira Warren, b. Kentucky ca. 1830; died Marion, Kentucky, March 1901. Their five children were as follows:

William S. T.
b. October 26, 1852, Livingston County, Kentucky,
d. December 23, 1854, Livingston County, Kentucky.

John Willis
b. September 18, 1857, Livingston County, Kentucky,
d. June 21, 1933, Los Angeles County, California,
m. (1st) in Marion, Crittenden County, Kentucky, Laura T. Bogard, December 24, 1890.

Children:

--Eda Skelton Bonney
(Mrs. Victor B. Bonney)

The John Skelton and his wife, Catherine Hepler, of Shenandoah County, Virginia, mentioned in the first paragraph of Mrs. Bonney's "Jeremiah Skelton," were the ancestors of the late Ike Skelton, Sr., an attorney of Skelton & Bradley Law Offices in Lexington, Missouri. Ike Skelton, Sr., was keenly interested in Skelton genealogy and climaxed his many years of Skelton research by visiting England, the ancestral home of early American Skeltons. Excerpts from his letter to Mrs. Bonney, dated 24 August 1962, with his letterhead including the names of Newton R. Bradley and Ike Skelton, Jr., follow:

> Dear Mrs. Bonney:
> Well, at long last, I visited Skelton, England. There are five Skeltons, England, and I visited four of them. The original one in Cumberland was too far away for me to get to. I will just have to visit it at another time.
>
> One quite small town by the name of Skelton has in it a very historic church. The Friars at this church were bought off by William the Conqueror, and they enabled him to capture the entire north of England and part of Scotland. The church there antidates the Norman conquest.
>
> There is a Skelton-In-Cleveland which contains Skelton Castle and the Skelton Church. It is a beautiful church. Then there is old and new Skelton, the big industry there is iron ore mining.
>
> I enclose a photostat of a little brochure on the castle.
>
> I also enclose an article on John Skelton's kin folks. John Skelton was a poet, as you know. The man who wrote the article, I get from it, did not think much of John Skelton and wrote a rather nasty article, I would say. Undoubtedly some of it is correct, and I got you a photostatic copy . . ..
>
> I met one young man by the name of Skelton. He was quite a successful trader and was very nice and polite. He and his friend took me around and showed me things that I never would have had a chance to see if it had not been for them.
>
> With warm personal regards, I am
>
> Yours very truly,
> Ike Skelton

Although Ike Skelton, Sr., was unable to visit Cumberland while in England, there is, however, coverage of the Cumberland Skeltons in Baskerville's book, Skeltons of Paxton, in his chapters I and V, entitled respectively, "The Skeltons in England" and "Skelton Coat Of Arms." He wrote that the Skelton family is entitled to heraldic arms and that the different branches of the English Skelton families have used a great variety of both shields and crests. In his book, he listed:

"The Plymouth arms are: Azure, a chevron, between three horses' heads couped argent. Crest: Out of a ducal coronet azure, a horse's head argent.

"Armathwaite: Azure, on a fesse argent, between three fleurs de lis or, a Cornish chough proper. Crest: A bird's head erased sable, holding in the beak an acorn or, stalked and leaved vert.

"High House, Cumberland: Azure a fesse cotised between three fleur de lis."

There are other Skelton coats of arms described in Bolton's American Armory by Bolton, The General Armory by Burke, and American Armoury and Blue Book by Matthews. Miss Zenobia Bell Callahan, Anniston, Alabama, has used one of the Skelton coats of arms on the cover of her book, Nine Generations Of The Skelton Family. Thus far, my research has not determined the Skelton coat of arms to which John Skelton of North Georgia and his descendants are entitled.

There is indeed a serious need for further research on both American Skeltons and English Skeltons. Assistance will be welcomed from any Skelton descendant.
